France – China: Business Opportunities and Considerations for Bilateral Investments

China's economy has been booming continuously, becoming one of the growth engines of the world economy. China's overseas direct investments have grown dramatically, from almost nothing in the early 1980s to as much as $56 billion in 2008, making China one of the main sources of investment in Asia. On the other side, with more than 1 billion Euros of direct investments, France is a significant investor in China.

Different business opportunities and investment aspects should be considered by both Chinese and French companies. Day One is honored to hold this conference and shed some light on these key issues.
